

Live from Laurel Canyon

Songs & Stories of American Folk Rock

"A beautiful show. The arrangements, the vocal harmonies remarkable and stunning. The history of the artists and songs fascinating." — MIM Music Theater (Phoenix)

FORMATS

STANDARD SHOW:

Electro-acoustic 7-piece features creator Brian Chartrand (vocals/guitar), David Freeman (vocals), Holly Pyle (vocals), Lamar Gaines (keys), Will Gaines (bass), Adam Armijo (electric guitar), and Todd Chuba (drums) who helped create "folk rock" which forever changed American popular music.

- > An Evening w/
- > Festival headliner

AVAILS

Open/General

THE STORY | a rock & roll neighborhood

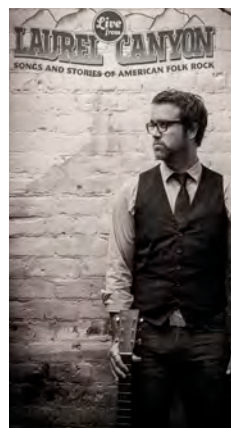

Laurel Canyon originates from its intersection with Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood. It winds and twists its way high above the city where we find Laurel Canyon residents: The Byrds, Buffalo Springfield, Carol King, James Taylor, the Mamas & the Papas, Joni Mitchell, Crosby Stills & Nash, The Eagles, Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Brown, Jim Morrison, Neil Young and the host of other legendary talent who resided there from 1965 through 1976.

THE SHOW | songs stories multi-media

Much more than a tribute act, this is a journey through the Songs & Stories of American Folk Rock... a special time in American pop music that pays homage to the musical legacy of Laurel Canyon. A gathering of friends for friends, and the interpretation of classic songs with narrated stories from this special neighborhood and most important era in music; an era that defined a generation and who's relevance transcended and influenced the generations to come. The show features some of the finest singers and most well versed musicians in the country. Singers and musicians whose take on these classic songs draw from the musical history of Laurel Canyon and its vast influence. Hear all your favorite songs again for the first time! "Live From Laurel Canyon," celebrating the artists of Laurel Canyon (1965-1975) with music and stories.

JAMES & JONI | their songs & stories

A new show from Live From Laurel Canyon, "James & Joni" focuses on the careers of two songwriting icons: James Taylor and Joni Mitchell presented with narrated stories about their lives and the songs you know and love. The show features some of the finest singers and most well-versed musicians in the country interpreting a selection of songs from their vast careers.

SUPPORT/LINKS

SOCIAL NETWORKS:

Facebook Spotify
Instagram SoundCloud
Twitter

WEBSITE:

www.livefromlaurelcanyon.com